The committee in charge of the meeting have received many responses of rooms, and they now feel assured of ample room for all of the visitors. The first arrivals will reach Maryville this evening and in the morning. A special train from Pattonsburg will arrive Thursday noon, bringing the teachers from Daviess, Gentry and Worth counties.

The opening session of the teachers will be held at the Normal, commencing at 9 o'clock in the morning.

The exhibits for the agricultural and domestic science contests in connection with the teachers' meeting are coming in fast and the committee is busy at work arranging them.

SCOVILLE TO OTTUMWA, IA.

The following dispatch is taken from the Des Moines Register about Rev. Charles Reign Scoville, who is to hold his next meeting in Ottumwa, Ia.:

Ottumwa, Ia.—The same site on which the tabernacle was built for the Billy Sunday meetings eight years ago is to be used this year for the evangelistic campaign conducted by the Rev. Charles Reign Scoville. Fearing the old Sunday site is not large enough for a building which can house the crowds at coming meetings, Ottumwa ministers sought to have the tabernacle put up across one of the downtown streets. The fire chief and city commissioners vetoed the project.

In a letter received Wednesday from Dr. Scoville he announced that he will not be able to open the Ottumwa meetings until Nov. 5. Oct. 29 was the date originally set. The evangelist is conducting meetings at Coffeyville, Kan., and ministers there prevailed upon him to extend his stay.

After next Sunday all Protestant churches of the city will discontinue their regular services and unite to make the campaign a success. The biggest revival since Sunday was here is expected. Personal workers' organizations are already busy arousing interest in the campaign.

CRISIS NOT FEARED

U. S. DOES NOT EXPECT SUBMARINE TROUBLE WITH GERMANY

6 AMERICANS LOSE LIVES

Teutons Make Advance Promises to Repair Damage If Law Has Been Violated In Ship Sinking

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Washington, Nov. 1.—The state department officials are positive today that there will be no rupture in the friendly relations between the United States and Germany over the sinking of the Marina and Rowanmore. The department has been informed in advance of possible future demands that the Germans will make full reparation should it be proved that the ships were sunk in violation of the law.

Germany Must Obey Rules.

London, Nov. 1.—The American government will hold Germany to strict adherence to the rules of submarine warfare.

Six Americans Lose Lives.

London, Nov. 1.—With six Americans dead in the torpedoing of the Marina, according to the United States consular dispatch, and two others in the hospital, investigation by the American embassy took on fresh impetus today.

Consul Frost has arranged to take the depositions of twenty-eight American survivors who have proceeded to Dublin. Thirty-four additional survivors, including fifteen Americans, are expected to arrive at Cork tonight.

An exchange telegraph dispatch from Skibbereen, where some of the survivors of the Marina have arrived, says that the steamer was attacked by two submarines.

CALDWELL SALE $440 A HEAD

Fifty-Four Aberdeen-Angus Sold, Principally to Iowa Men—800 Attended the Sale.

The sale of fifty-four head of Aberdeen-Angus cattle held by C. D. and E. F. Caldwell yesterday afternoon at their farm, near Burlington Junction, was a good one, and the average price received was a little under $440. There were probably 800 in attendance at the sale and there were buyers from Nebraska, Iowa, Arkansas, Mississippi and Kansas. The principal buyers were from Iowa.

MRS. MARTHA BUZZARD DIES

Hopkins Woman Succumbs to Paralysis After Short Illness—Funeral Tomorrow.

Mrs. Martha M. Buzzard, 76 years old, died at her home in Hopkins at 4 o'clock this morning, following a serious illness with paralysis. The funeral will be held at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from the Hopkins Baptist church, with burial in the Workman Chapel cemetery. The Rev. B. W. Griffith will officiate at the funeral.

Mrs. Buzzard was born in Indiana and came to Nodaway county about thirty-five years ago. She married Levi Buzzard August 21, 1859. She is survived by her husband and by seven children. They are: Mrs. Mary Dodson, Nowadi, Okla.; Mrs. Margaret West, Mrs. Laura Carmichael, Charles and Martin E. Buzzard, all of Pickering; Mrs. Emmett King of Hopkins and Frank Buzzard of Bedford, Ia. She also has twenty-one grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

ARE WELL ATTENDED

DEMOCRATIC MEETINGS HELD THIS WEEK A SUCCESS.

DUNCAN AT CLEARMONT

Probate Judge of St. Joseph to Speak at Meeting There Tonight—Stigall at Guilford Tonight.

The Democratic meetings held in Parnell and Pickering last evening were well attended and a great deal of enthusiasm shown. L. V. Stigall of St. Joseph made the talk at Parnell, while Ellis G. Cook and Charles McCaffrey spoke at Pickering. Mr. Stigall's speeches on Democratic issues are being well received.

Mr. Stigall will address a Democratic meeting at Guilford tonight. This will be his last speech in this county, as he goes to Gentry county for the rest of the campaign.

Judge Albert B. Duncan of St. Joseph will be the speaker for the meeting at Clearmont tonight.

The Barnard Woodrow Wilson club will have a rally on Friday evening, and Judge Charles H. Mayer of St. Joseph will make the principal address. A number from Maryville will attend this meeting. Judge Mayer is to address a meeting at Conception Junction on Saturday night.

The closing meeting for Maryville will be held Saturday night at the court house with Col. John H. Atwood of Kansas City as the speaker. Colonel Atwood will also make an address at Hopkins Saturday afternoon.

The meeting that was advertised for Burlington Junction Friday night has been cancelled.

ACTIVITY IN MACEDONIA

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Paris, Nov. 1.—Striking out after a period of comparative inactivity, the British in Macedonia captured the important Greek city of Baraklidjuma from the Bulgarians, the war office announced. The French have driven nearer Bapaume from the south. Northeast of Les Boeff the French advanced their lines another mile. The Germans made counter attacks in the sector of Sailly Saillesel but were repulsed.

British Attack Near Bapaume.

Berlin, Nov. 1.—Strong British attacks west of Bapaume on the Somme front were reported by the Germans last night, the war office announced. Fort Vaux, on the Verdun front, was violently bombarded by the French. Violent counter attacks were launched all along the line in Galicia by the Russians last night but were repulsed. Progress was made at two points in Transylvania.

German Defenders Repulsed.

Petrograd, Nov. 1.—For two days the Germans between the Baltic and Pinsk marshes have been bombarding, and the attack on Russian position were all repulsed.

French Raids Successful.

London, Nov. 1.—Successful trench raids by the British northeast of Festubert reported by the British.

Austro-Germans Thrown Back.

London, Nov. 1.—The Austro-Germans that have been fighting on Rumanian territory north of Campolung have been thrown back across the border into Hungary, a Rome wireless states. Four Austro-German battalions were annihilated.

2 American Aviators Killed.

Paris, Nov. 1.—Two American aviators attacked French flying corps and were killed in an aeroplane accident at Nancy.

NEW SCHOLARSHIPS

BOARD OF REGENTS DECIDES ON SERIES FOR NORMAL STUDENTS.

FOR HONOR STUDENTS

Pupils Receiving Honors in All High Schools of District Other Than First Class May Win.

The board of regents of the Maryville State Normal school, in session yesterday, voted to establish a new series of scholarships open to honor graduates of all high schools of the district other than first class. The first class high schools already have a series of scholarships to which their graduates are eligible. The new scholarships are for honor graduates only, and each has a cash value of $24, if used for three-quarters.

The board, besides attending to the usual routine business, approved the appointments to the faculty of the Normal school, made since the last meeting of the board.

They also approved of the plan to be used in financing the dormitory and agreed to the proposition of leasing for a period of ten years the property on which the dormitory is to be built.

The budget for the next biennial period was discussed and the amounts to be used were voted upon. The board also approved of the tentative plans for the dormitory, the selection of which is to be left in the hands of a committee, which will decide on the matter later in the year.

TRAINMEN FOR WILSON

WANTS $20,000 HEART BALM

Alta Handley Sues C. E. Geer of Hopkins for Breach of Promise—Case Set for Next Term.

A breach of promise suit for $20,000 was filed today for the January term of circuit court by Alta Handley against C. E. Geer by Attorneys B. R. Martin and Warren Rogers of St. Joseph.

The petition recites that in April, 1916, the defendant promised to marry the plaintiff and that a few months after the defendant married another woman. The petition also states it was known throughout the community where the plaintiff lived, and the plaintiff suffered great humiliation and mental anguish.

The defendant is a resident of the Hopkins vicinity.

REV. WILES HERE FRIDAY

New Pastor of the Baptist Church to Assume Duties Next Sunday—Beloved by Former Congregation.

The Rev. T. H. Wiles of Smithville, Ky., will arrive in Maryville Friday to become pastor of the Baptist church of this city. His first sermon will be Sunday. The following clipping is from the Henry County Local of New Castle, Ky., about the Rev. Mr. Wiles:

The Rev. Mr. Wiles having accepted the call to a large church in Missouri resigned his pastorate here last Sunday. He is much beloved by this church and community, and the good wishes of his many friends follow him.

A QUIET HALLOWE'EN

Violence and Vandalism Play Small Part in Maryville's Celebration of Festival.

Violence and vandalism did not enter into Maryville's celebration of Hallowe'en last night A few front gates, door mats, signs, buggies and other movable objects were molested. The police received no complaints, however.

Chief of Police Shonley rounded up about twenty school boys last evening and took them to the city hall for about twenty minutes, and then turned them loose. The boys did not molest anything after this.

HUGHES TO INDIANA.

Predicting His Own Election, G. O. P. Candidate Still Works.

ON SECOND VOYAGE

DEUTCHLAND ARRIVES SAFE AT AMERICAN PORT.

TRIP WITHOUT INCIDENT

Cargo on German Merchant Submarine Said to be Worth $1,000,000 —Dye Stuffs and Chemicals.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

New London, Nov. 1.—Looming up out of the fog like a gray ghost of the seas, the German merchant submarine, Deutschland, arrived at port early today on her second voyage. The voyage was made from Bremen in twenty-one days.

Captain Koenig reported the voyage without incident, although heavy seas were encountered. All of the men and himself are tired out, but are in good health.

The Deutschland passed beneath a powerful flotilla of British warships patrolling the English coast since the raid of the U-53.

The cargo on the Deutschland is said to be worth a million dollars and consists of dye stuffs and chemicals.

Captain Koenig refused to express an opinion of the fate of the Bremen.

Deutschland as Merchant Vessel.

Washington, Nov. 1.—The United States customs office announced the Deutschland has been accepted as a merchant vessel.

Bremen is Lost.

New London, Nov. 1.—The Bremen is lost, according to one member of the crew of the Deutschland.

U-53 Safely in German Port.

Berlin, Nov. 1.—The U-53 arrived safely in a German port, the admiralty announced.

ARCH HARPER SELLS FARM.

240 Acres Purchased by Mrs. R. F. Hamblen for $135 an Acre.

Arch R. Harper sold his farm of 240 acres located four miles north and a mile east of Maryville, to Mrs. R. F. Hamblen this week. The consideration was $135 an acre. Mr. Harper and family intend to move to Colorado.

THE WEATHER.

Fair tonight and Thursday with moderate temperature.

The Overcoat of today isn't like the ones of our grandfather's. Good tailoring makes style and yet retains warmth and comfort. Clothcraft models will prove it.

The fit of a coat; the hang of trousers; the way a seam is run—these are what make for good clothes and what make Clothcraft popular.

NEWS OF SOCIETY AND WOMEN'S CLUBS

Epworth League Entertains 225 Young Persons.

The Epworth League of the First Methodist church gave a Hallowe'en social for the young members of the church and for the Normal students last night at the church. The decorations were carried out to represent a cornfield and a cemetery. The evening was spent in carrying on a contest. The contestants were divided into four groups, ghosts, goblins, witches and fairies. Jim Carpenter was manager and Miss Vada Foland and Joe Lukens acted as judges. The ghosts and the goblins tied as winners. Mrs. Elizabeth French told fortunes during the evening. Refreshments were served to about 225 persons.

Miss Redfield, Hostess.

Miss Irene Redfield entertained last night at her home, on North Mulberry street, in honor of the "Haines bunch." Victrola music was furnished, and refreshments were served by the hostess. Those present were: Misses Elizabeth Heffern, Gladys Ford, Stella McDowell, Bertha Schmauder, Ella Noll, Clara Sherlock, Anna Stapler, Kate Vaughn and Louise Stapler.

Mrs. Cooke Entertains.

Mrs. Arthur M. Crooke entertained the members of her Sunday school class with a Hallowe'en party last night at her home, 102 South Walnut street. The rooms were decorated with the Hallowe'en colors, yellow and black, and from nooks and corners black cats and witches peered out. As the guests arrived they were met at the door by a witch who forbade them to smile under penalty of forfeit. As the occasion called for little but laughter and fun, the pile of forfeits grew amazingly. Another witch took them to the nook of the old gipsy fortune teller, who found in her coffee grounds many wonderful things for the future. Various amusing games were played until time for refreshments. The table in the dining room was attractive with Hallowe'en colors and decorations, the hostess serving sweet cider and gingerbread, after which the young folks built a bonfire in the yard and toasted marshmallows over the coals. Mrs. Crooke was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. W. Dusenberry. Those present were: Ora May Condon, Alton Ditto, Edna Davenport, Pauline Eckert, Lucile Elliot, Loma Gilbert, Charlotte Welchel, Bernice Orcutt, Blanche Pierpoint, Mabel Robey, Gladys Taylor, Ellen Whaley, Lorene Hartley, Beulah McLarnon, Audra Williams, Agnes Murray, Orvetta Smith and Ruth Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. VanSteenbergh and Mr. and Mrs. Harold VanSteenbergh entertained last night at 6 o'clock dinner at their home, on West Fourth street. Their guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Montgomery, Tom Montgomery and Walter Craig of Bolckow.

Will Meet With Mrs. Airy.

The Women's Foreign Missionary society will meet Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. John Airy, on North Mulberry street.

Called Meeting of Twentieth Century Club.

A called meeting of the Twentieth Century club will be held at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon at the Elks club to hear the report of the district convention recently held at Stanberry, and for miscellaneous business.

Rev. and Mrs. C. Emerson Miller Entertain.

The Rev. and Mrs. C. Emerson Miller entertained the members of the C. W. B. M. and their husbands with a Hallowe'en party last night at the Christian church parsonage. The house was appropriately decorated with emblems of Hallowe'en. The guests came dressed as ghosts and other characters. The evening was spent in telling ghost stories and in enjoying readings and solos given by various members of the C. W. B. M. Mrs. Miller was assisted in serving by Misses Lois Halley, Grace Langan, Gertrude Wright and Virginia Rose.

Elks Celebrate Hallowe'en.

A Hallowe'en party was given at the Elks Club house last night for the members and their families, and was attended by forty-five couples. As each one entered the club cotillion hats were given and for table prizes souvenirs of cupid dolls and whisk brooms were given. Cards and dominoes were played, and Miss Rose Schumacher won the women's prize at cards and George Herren won the gentleman's prize. W. C. Pierce received the consolation prize at cards. This prize was a real live cat in a box. Cider and apples were served, and later in the evening the guests enjoyed a cafeteria luncheon. After the games a dance was given, and during the grand march horns, whistles and yellow cotillion ties were given to each one.

Jobs Entertain Country Club.

Pumpkin jack o' lanterns, autumn leaves and other decorations were used at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Job, Jr., who entertained the members of the Country club last night. The evening was spent in playing dominoes, and in having guessing contests. The prize in the guessing contests was awarded to Miss Wilma Hall. Those who enjoyed the affair were: Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Trullinger, Mr. and Mrs. R. T Noakes, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. White, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Trullinger, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Willhoyte, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Shell, Mr. and Mrs. Arch Willhoyte, Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Willhoyte, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Knabb, Mrs. William Job, Mrs. M. J. Willhoyte, Mrs. Ethel Lincoln, Mrs. Lillie Campbell, Misses Wilma Hall, Clydell White, Grace Sheridan, Beulah Miller, Miss Shull, Elizabeth Lee, Leora Willhoyte, Vivian Hall, Roberta Willhoyte, Eldon Job and Emery and Amos Shell.

Mrs. D. J. Thomas Entertains.

The Tuesday Afternoon Bridge club was pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. D. J. Thomas, on North Main street, yesterday afternoon. The winner of high score was Mrs. Cleav Funk. The guests of the club were Mrs. J. J. Walsh of St. Joseph and Mrs. Estill Holland of Hot Springs, Ark.

Lora May Crossan, Hostess.

Nine little friends of Lora May Crossan were entertained at her home, on North Walnut street, yesterday evening. The Hallowe'en idea was cleverly carried out in the decorations and the evening was spent in playing old fashioned games. Refreshments consisting of popcorn, candy and cookies were served to the following: Billy Wright, Eva Margaret Frank, Esther Roseberry, Miriam Catterson, Marie Woods, George Newton Mills, W. C. Culver, Halbert Catterson and George Fannon. The little hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. L. G. Crossan, and by her aunt, Miss Bertha Anderson.

Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Hutchison Give Party.

Last night fifty-six young persons were entertained at a Hallowe'en party at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Hutchison of Pickering. The house was decorated throughout with autumn foliage and corn stalks. On the windows were owls, bats and ghost faces. The light shone through the faces of pumpkins made into jack o' lanterns.

The guests arrived at 7:45 o'clock and were met in front of the Christian church by Miss Myrtle Null, who was masked to represent a ghost. There they took a vow, promising to obey orders for the evening. Then they were permitted to pass on. Next they were met by Miss Marcella Lincoln, who also represented a ghost. She escorted them over several difficult places before they reached the door.

Miss Nina Evans stood at the door, masked, and each guest had a bite of cold macaroni before entering the house. A prize was given for the best masquerade costume, and Miss Osie McKee was the recipient.

Lunch was served in cafeteria style. Before departing each guest was given a good night kiss by the entertainment committee. These kisses proved to be of candy, and around each was a slip of paper, on which a fortune had been written. The guests read the fortunes aloud, and then departed in high glee to await their fortune's fate.

Hallowe'en Social At Ravenwood.

The Epworth League of the South Methodist church at Ravenwood held a Hallowe'en social in the church last night. Hallowe'en decorations were used and a lunch was served, cafeteria style. About 120 boys and girls were present.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes —Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, you will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results. Thousands of women as well as men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep in the pink of condition. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Simplicity of Line

SINCE dame fashion demands simplicity of line and a natural figure as a standard in women's dress, for the present season, it has been the work of corset manufacturers to produce models which will give the figure the prescribed outline.

The new American Lady Corset models fulfill every style requirement, and are "figure builders," every one.

There are American Lady Corsets in a wide range of styles—among them is a model which will be perfect for your needs. Let our corsetiere fit you to one of the new models. Prices range from

Two Months Notice.

Preparatory to my quitting the Implement business, I shall on and after January 1, 1917, conduct strictly, a cash or note business. They tell me it can't be done, but I'll show you. The banks do it; Ed Townsend does it; Sears and Robuck do it, and what they can do, I can do. SO KEEP YOUR EYE ON THE INDICATOR. and do not misconstrue.

Think!!! Did you ever get ten dollars at a bank without first signing an interest bearing note. and no doubt, giving security? Did you ever get a dollars worth of groceries from Ed Townsend without first paying for them? And last, but not least, did Sears and Robuck ever send you a thing without your first sending the collateral, and too, without your having seen it? These questions, CAN BE answered by the children.

Please Remember The Date.

It is a Fact,

January 1, 1917, I shall have been in the implement business, right here in Maryville a quarter of a century. Think!

This is costing me $2.40.

"OF COURSE."
